Her love for Jesus inspired the free annual production "From the Manger to the Cross" at the Maysel Park where many in the community participated. Jeanie enjoyed bringing together the churches to provide free Thanksgiving and Christmas meal opportunities. Jeanie also loved to garden and give away her harvest come late summer. She liked beach trips with her friends or family and to visit the Greenbrier. She loved anything that sparkled. Her family and friends loved her for all the sparkle she added to our lives.
